

Fresh

Tye Tribbett

Time for change, let it rain, pour down something new.
Not the same, something more, something different something.
Out with the old
Just let it go
And let the lord be something.
Eyes haven't seen
Ears haven't hears
You cant even imagine
What God has is so fresh

I want everything new like its straight out the box
I mean something supernatural
Something that's never been used
That nobody's got
'Cause I'm tired of the same old -same old
Need a brand new start
With a brand new heart
Forgetting those things behind me
I'm ready for the new thing Lord
There's gotta be something better
I know there must be something more...
What God has is so fresh

I want whats next
I want only the best
Time for me to move forward
I want whats in store
An open door
I want a new life to live more abundant
I want you breathe
Breathe on me
Release your power and glory
I-I-I want something more
Ma-Ma-Make me over Lord
Not gonna live life still no more
Cause I know what God has is so fresh

So fresh y'all (God has is so fresh)
Yeah, so fresh y'all (God has is so fresh)
Yeah so fresh y'all (God has is so fresh)
So fresh y'all (so fresh)
So fresh y'all (so)
F-R-E-S-H fresh, fresh, fresh, that's right
We can start all over again. (fresh)
Yeah, time for a brand new start.
Yeah we can start all over again.
So fresh, so fresh, so fresh

Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Out man everything fresh man everything
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Out with the old, in with the new
Everything fresh man everything fresh

Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Out with the old, in with the new
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fres-
Hold out do something new
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh
Everything fresh man everything fresh...
