

Cover Girl

Tyler Farr

She let her last tear drop
Pressed the peddle down
Put him in the rearview
Along with that stuck here town
Turned that FM dial
Till she found a song
To help forget
What was already gone

Hey, cover girl
Shouldn't have to cover, girl
Make up hides but don't heal it
So damn tired of concealing
No real man
Should ever lay his hands on you
Hey cover girl, CoverGirl
Ain't meant to cover black and blue

Flying down the road
Crossing county lines
You never thought you'd leave
But you did this time
You never felt so free
Never thought you'd know
What it feels like
To break the chains and roll
Go on girl, go

Hey, cover girl
Shouldn't have to cover, girl
Make up hides but don't heal it
So damn tired of concealing
No real man
Should ever lay his hands on you
Hey cover girl, CoverGirl
Ain't meant to cover black and blue

Keep on rolling don't slow down
Don't let the devil turn you back around
You're almost there, keep moving
And prove it

Cover girl
Shouldn't have to cover, girl
Make up hides but don't heal it
So damn tired of concealing
No real man
Should ever lay his hands on you
Hey cover girl, CoverGirl
Ain't meant to cover black and blue
Ain't meant to cover black and blue
Hey, CoverGirl
Ain't meant to cover black and blue