

I Should Go to Church Sometime

Tyler Farr

Saw a man on the sidewalk
Hunger written in red chalk
Maybe he just wanted to talk
But I walked away

Saw a kid on the TV
He was only seventeen
Wrapped his truck 'round an Oak tree
The whole town prayed

I should go to church sometime
I should go to church sometime

Easter and Christmas
Yeah, I don't ever miss it
I ask for forgiveness
They tell me what I like to hear

But I need a revival
For this prodigal disciple
Wipe the dust off my bible
More than once or twice a year

I should go to church sometime
Maybe walk a little straighter line
Lord knows I could use the light
To get where I'm going
I shouldn't say "next Sunday"
I shouldn't let my pride get in the way

I know I shouldn't be afraid (shouldn't be afraid)
Of what I know I'll find
I should go to church sometime
I should go to church sometime

Nah, it ain't until you're sinkin'
Till you really start listening
You get down on your knees, down on your knees
You swear it's the last time that you'll say

I should go to church sometime
Walk a little straighter line
Lord knows I could use the light to get where I'm going
I shouldn't say "next Sunday"
I shouldn't let my pride get in the way
I know I shouldn't be afraid (shouldn't be afraid)
Of what I know I'll find
I should go to church sometime
