

Just For Always

Tyler James

See I got words that I'm trying to say
I keep on stalling and they won't come out
You see there's something about you baby
That makes me stutter whenever you're around

And this feeling's self-restraining
Why am I still waiting
When she don't know
I should tell her it's forever
We should get together
But still don't show

Can I be your lover
Can I be your lover
Just for always
I just gotta have you when I see your face
Can I be your lover
Just for always ,always

See I got hopes for a better future
And you and me is the first thing in mind
And when I picture our first time together
I feel alive something it's me inside

And this feeling's self-restraining
Why am I still waiting
When she don't know
I should tell her it's forever
We should get together
But still don't show

Can I be your lover
Can I be your lover
Just for always
I just gotta have you when I see your face
Can I be your lover
Just for always, always

Can I make you want me
Can I make you want me
In the same way
So we can love each other
Every single day
I wanna be your lover
Just for always, always

I've gotta let you know
Oh ohh ohhh
Think I should let you know

Can I be your lover
Can I be your lover
Just for always
I just gotta have you when I see your face
Can I be your lover
Just for always ,always

Can I make you want me
Can I make you want me
Every single day
