

And The Birds Sing

Tyrone Wells

Sunshine came out today
And it's shining all over the world
Shining all over the world

The sunshine came out today
And it's shining all over the world
On every man, woman, boy and girl

And it sure feels fine
When the sunshine shines
It warms your skin
And your soul within

And the birds sing...
Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo Doo

The poor man and the millionaire
Both sharing the oak tree shade
Not stressing over money made

The preacher and the atheist
Both jumping in the ocean waves
Today they both feel saved

Say what you gonna do when the clouds come
You gonna hold your head high
Say what you gonna do when the storms come
Keep your eyes to the sky, and I'll tell you why

Cause one day...
The sunshine will shine again
Shine all over the world
On every man, woman, boy and girl
