

For Who I Am

Tyrone Wells

You are a woman
Moving in beauty
Dancing with grace
In circles around me
The soul of a lion
But gentle as a lamb
You are the strong one
You hold me where I stand

[Chorus]

You have a way
Of seeing my heart behind all my mistakes
You understand that I am far from a perfect man
You love me
You love me...For who I am
For who I am

There are my hands
Here to protect you
This is my day
Just thinking about you
These are my dreams
Built all around you
This is my life
I can't live without you

[Chorus]

You have a way...of seeing my heart behind all my mistakes
You understand that I am far from a perfect man
You love me
You love me...For who I am

Not for who I might become or
Who you hope I'll be

[Chorus]

You have a way...of seeing my heart behind all my mistakes
You understand that I am far from a perfect man
You love me
You love me...For who I am
For who I am.
