

Shade Of Blue

Tyrone Wells

All of the colors fade into blue, beautiful blue fades into you

All of the colors fade into you, beautiful you.

I wanna set sail, like a sailer at sea it's just you and me.

You are the ocean, the land of the free.

Rolling along on your way to embrace me, resting in your shade of blue, resting in your shade of blue.

I have been waiting, waiting for you.

Beautiful you, I wanna dive in your blue.

Like a sailor at sea, it's just you and me, you are the ocean,
the land of the free.

Rolling along on your way to embrace me, resting in your shade of blue, drowning in love like a sailor would do, resting in yo ur shade of blue.

Washed away, washed away washed away in your shade.

Resting in your shade of blue, drowning in love like a sailor w ould do, I am resting in your shade of blue.

Washed away, washed away, washed away in your shade.

Washed away, washed away, washed away, washed away in your shad e.

I have been waiting waiting for you.
