

Dead Man Walking

Tysondog

In the deepest darkest bowels of hell
There is a place reserved for you to dwell
Where the keeper of your sins
Will meet you face to face

Everywhere you walk you leave a stain
Everyone you touch you leave in pain
When you're dead and gone the world will be a better place

I am vengeance! I am wrath! Your reckoning

I've stood in the shadows my whole life through
It's painfully clear what I have to do
No matter what I'll put an end to you
I'll never stop, I won't give up

Never give you're always on the take
Haven't got a decent bone to break
In the end your worthless life
Is hanging by a thread

Think you're bullet proof? Don't be so sure
Nothing that a nine mil round won't cure
No one remembers you
The second you are dead

I am vengeance! I am wrath! Your reckoning

I've stood in the shadows my whole life through
It's painfully clear what I have to do
No matter what I'll put an end to you
I'll never stop, I won't give up

Redneck, terrorist, bloodline, severance
Breathing, talking, dead man walking.

I am vengeance! I am wrath! Your reckoning

I've stood in the shadows my whole life through
It's painfully clear what I have to do
No matter what I'll put an end to you
I'll never stop, I won't give up
