

Walking amongst you I'll hide in plain sight
Angel by day but a demon by night
You are the sickness and I am the cure
I yearn for a world uninfected and pure
Show me your back and I'll tear out your soul
I've tried to resist but I'm not in control
Blood on my hands and I ain't had my fill
It's true that I live for the thrill of the kill

I confess that this mess isn't all that it seems
Now that voice that began as a whisper is starting to scream
It lives, it lives
This sickness inside me
It lives, it lives
This madness that drives us

To prey on the weak and the lame and the old
Dog eat dog world it's relentless and cold
Power and greed are the masters you serve
I'll vanquish your pain it's more than you deserve
Fall into line as you follow the herd
Your meaningless lives couldn't be more absurd
I'll do you a favour and show you death's door
I've tasted your pain now I'm hungry for more

I confess that the stress is beginning to tell
And the corpse in the back of my car is beginning to smell

It lives, it lives
This evil that guides me
It lives, it lives
The darkness that hides me
It lives, it lives
This sickness inside me
It lives, it lives
This madness that drives us
It lives, it lives
This evil that guides me
It lives, it lives
The darkness that hides me
