

Anti-Venom

Ubiquitous Synergy Seeker

Still playing games with the hourly wagers feeling left out
Could you not see the consequences of treading in your doubt
Hope is always the antidote and I'm feeling what I can
Could you not see the obviousness in acting like a man

Fear is always the catalyst
Sending shivers through my heart
And I can't stop it from happening
When I'm falling apart
I can't stop it from happening
When my hope light goes out
Love is always the aperture
When my hope light goes out
The truth is...

When the snake sits on the right
The truth is always the anti-venom
The snake sits on the left
The truth is always the anti-venom
The snake sits on the right
The truth is always the anti-venom
The snake sits on the left
I'm laying blame like a cowardly lion
Stuck in what was then
Could you not feel the enviousness corrode an alloy's end?
Guilt is always the histamine
And I'm scratching at the door
Could you not feel the urgency
And insist there's something more

Love is always the catalyst
You make music in my heart
I can't stop it from happening
When I'm falling apart
I can't stop it from happening
When my hope light goes out
Love is always the aperture
When my hope light goes out
Love is always the aperture

You make music in my heart I beat to
You make music in my heart I dance to
Pure intention is the scope I aim through
You make music in my heart I dance to
I dance to [x2]
