

Heaven on Mars

Ubiquitous Synergy Seeker

Everytime the door knocks
Everytime I check the mail box
And every time the phone rings, too
It's never you
I miss her like blind archers miss
I adore her randomness
I still taste her candy kiss
Heaven flavored blissfulness
I won't break, I broke
I won't take, I took
I'm not shell, I'm yolk
And I won't break, I broke
Now if I dig a moat
Who will build a boat
And brave the storm
Keep me dry and warm?
If gravity reversed itself
In high-speed rewind
Tears would so electrocute
Projectors in my mind
I miss her like blind archers miss
I adore her randomness
I still taste her candy kiss
Heaven flavoured blissfulness
I won't break, I broke
I won't take, I took
I'm not shell, I'm yolk
And I won't break, I broke
Now if I dig a moat
Who will build a boat
And brave the storm
Keep me dry and warm?
And if all hope is gone
Who will raise this fawn
Strengthen weakened knees
Hold me, become the freeze
Please
