

I figured out the grade of this collapse
The compass doesn't lie when it's holdin' me
I'd love a little faith with this afternoon
Give the sun a bomb when it's comin' down

Walkin' through the shame of this relapse
The mirror doesn't lie when it's scolding me
I'd love a little faith with this afternoon
And come quickly...

Oh, I know
I'm holding on
I'm holding on to a ghost
I know
I'm tangled up
I'm tangled up in your ropes
I know
I'm skippin' work
I'm skippin' work like a stone
I know
It's ok I'm not a-ok right now
