

See you on the dance floor
Feels like we've been here before
Our bodies synced in four-four
DD's going overlord
Your face is saying you want more
Stayin' for the encore
All is fair in love and war
So I don't blame you anymore

You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
I don't blame you anymore
You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")

I'm feelin' spaced out, baby, I'm an astronaut
Anna Jetson, you don't know my whereabouts
Try to keep up, baby, I'm an astronaut
Anna Jetson, you don't know my whereabouts

Try to keep up, keep up, keep up, keep up
Can you be my freak show? Freak show, freak show, freak

I'm feelin' spaced out, baby, I'm an astronaut
Anna Jetson, you don't know my whereabouts
Try to keep up, baby, I'm an astronaut
Anna Jetson, you don't know my whereabouts

You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
So I don't blame you anymore
You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
You say, "I love you" (You say, "I love you")
So I don't blame you anymore

Thinking 'bout the things you said
My meter's steady hittin' red
Bass is going widespread
Slappin' back into my head
Slappin' back into my head

See you on the dance floor
Feels like we've been here before
Our bodies synced in four-four
DD's going overlord
Your face is saying you want more
Stayin' for the encore
