Well, I've stuck out in your street And I'm lookin' for some kind of halo When somebody says to me, hey boy She's too young to no no Well, I didn't make your time I never said you were mine Don't you think you show so I Guess I'll have to teach you how to roll Met you outside school When sure no one was lookin' And your teacher looks at me All his envy growin' Well, I didn't make your time I never said you were mine Don't you think you show so I Guess I'll have to teach you how to roll I said, take it easy baby You sure know what's showin' And I can't help myself Without your friends all knowin' Well, I didn't make your time I never said you were mine Don't you think you show so I Guess I'll have to teach you how to roll Well, I didn't make your time I never said you were mine Don't you think you show so I Guess I'll have to teach you how to roll You got a long, long way to go