

It's Gone

Ugly Duckling

Monday's here, up at six thirty
Wednesday, I just gotta keep workin
Friday night, let's get down and dirty
Sunday, I better go to bed early
Monday's here, I need some cash
Late to the job so I'm driving fast
Had a close call and I nearly crashed
I ran out of gas
I need some cash, man it's still storming
Three days straight and won't stop pouring
Leak in my roof so I gotta to call the foreman
Wait it's clearing up, been sunny all morning
Man it's too hot, let's go to a show
My favorite emcee with the classic flow
In line to buy tickets down in the front row
Sold out 10 seconds ago
Let's go to a show, I'll call some friends
We can go to Vegas where the party never ends
Got my paycheck and I'm ready to spend
Have to tell the wife I'm broke again

It's coming, it's coming, it's coming
It's here, it's gone
It's coming (anticipate)
It's coming (she's about to break)
It's coming (I just can't wait)
It's here, it's gone

The group's doing well selling lots of LP's
Touring in the states and overseas
They put the new video on TV
Record sales drop cause of MP3's
Met a young lady, smiled hello
Got the digits, mobile and home
She looks much better than the girls I've known
I wait a few days then I dial the phone
(Wrong number) I got a new album today
I can't wait to get it in my CD tray
Open up the case I'm about to press play
Throw it away
Man I need clothes, my closet's tapped
Hit the outlet store and search the racks
Found new pants and a shirt to match
Brought the stuff home, my sneakers clash
Man I need clothes, they hatched the deal
Yep, publishing advance worth half a mill
He bought the crew cars and platinum grills
Bounced check and a stack of bills

It's coming, it's coming, it's coming
It's here, it's gone
It's coming (anticipate)
It's coming (she's about to break)
It's coming (I just can't wait)
It's here, it's gone
