Daughter

Ulrik Munther

Early morning I watch you sleep Not everyone is as lucky as me I kiss your forehead before I leave Soon we'll be old and forget how it feels

To be young and in love For the very first time, build our home of our own Have a child, and what it's like When the sun is beginning to rise

Oh, how I hope that if we have a daughter She'll grow up to be like you If she sometimes takes after her father Well that would be okay too

We could move to another country Grow our own food, get a couple of sheep Or a place in maybe New York City Right by the Statue of Liberty

'Cause I know I'll be fine Just as long as I've got you right here by my side There's no fear in my eyes So take me wherever you like

And oh, how I hope that if we have a daughter She'll grow up to be like you And if she sometimes takes after her father Well that would be okay too
