

King Of Our Days

Ulrik Munther

Remember the days when we were kings,
that's when we ruled a world of great and simple things.
We've come a long way from now until then but I know you and I could live those days again.

Right about now, hey!
Ooh... Right about now, hey!
Ooh... Right about.

We're king of our days. King of our nights.
It's about time we take what's wrong and set it right.
We're king of our days. King of our nights.
I'll try to hold on to all this wisdom my whole life.

All we need to be comes easily to the kid inside.
We're king of our days. King of our nights.

When we we're kids things were so clear.
I used to belong to all I loved and show I cared.
I'd see to the truth
of all of my fears
so that my laughter echoed then my tears.

Right about now, hey!
Ooh... Right about now, Hey!
Ooh.. Right about.

We're king of our days. King of our nights.
It's about time we take what's wrong and set it right.
We're king of our days. King of our nights.
I'll try to hold on to all this wisdom my whole life.

All we need to be comes easily to the kid inside.
We're king of our days. King of our nights.

When we were kings of little things we never needed nothing much cause we were kings of everything.
Who said we needed to grow up?

It's all about here, all about right now...
