

Requiem

Ulrik Munther

Love is a beautiful place when you're in it, when you're in it
But then you fucked it all up in just a minute, now we are finished

I thought that you'd always be there, I would have followed you
anywhere

Now everything we ever shared is just a memory in my head

I promise you this is the end, I am singing a requiem
Your not gonna feel me again, cuz I'm singing a requiem

I'm still in love with your face, so i hate it yeah i hate it
And just the thought of your lips makes me crazy, makes me crazy
I thought that you'd always be there, I would have followed you
anywhere

Now everything we ever shared is just a memory in my head

I promise you this is the end, I am singing a requiem
Your not gonna feel me again, cuz I'm singing a requiem
Your praying for forgiveness, your praying for forgiveness
You keep praying for forgiveness while I'm singing a requiem

There was so much you could say, so much you could do,
But look away and hide the truth
Your trying to explain but i am not a fool no!

No, No Im no fool for you
No...

I promise you this is the end, I am singing a requiem
Your not gonna feel me again, cuz I'm singing a requiem
Your praying for forgiveness, your praying for forgiveness
You keep praying for forgiveness while I'm singing a requiem
While I'm singing a requiem...
