The Box

Ulrik Munther

I've been stuck right here for quite awhile Why can't I ever go the extra mile? When it's raining I just can't go out But I don't know why We never stop to just enjoy right now Watch the raindrops in the summer shower We are all to busy with our lives And I don't know why Yeah

[Chorus:] Won't you open up your mind? Maybe put it upside down And then watch it from behind When you think outside the box You're unlocking every lock And you'll never outfoxed by that box

I know time is way to valuable To waste it all on self control So my advice to you is letting go And you'll be surprised Cause if we all break free from our routines We'd be climbing up in every tree Just to get a better view of things And you'll be surprised

[Chorus]

I'm gonna throw my empty box away Pretend there's no tomorrow everyday I'm gonna throw my empty box away

You gotta throw your empty box away Pretend there's no tomorrow everyday You gotta throw your empty box away yeah away!

[Chorus]
