The Box

Ulrik Munther

I've been stuck right here for quite awhile
Why can't I ever go the extra mile?
When it's raining I just can't go out
But I don't know why
We never stop to just enjoy right now
Watch the raindrops in the summer shower
We are all to busy with our lives
And I don't know why
Yeah

[Chorus:]
Won't you open up your mind?
Maybe put it upside down
And then watch it from behind
When you think outside the box
You're unlocking every lock
And you'll never outfoxed by that box

I know time is way to valuable
To waste it all on self control
So my advice to you is letting go
And you'll be surprised
Cause if we all break free from our routines
We'd be climbing up in every tree
Just to get a better view of things
And you'll be surprised

[Chorus]

I'm gonna throw my empty box away
Pretend there's no tomorrow everyday
I'm gonna throw my empty box away

You gotta throw your empty box away
Pretend there's no tomorrow everyday
You gotta throw your empty box away

yeah away!

[Chorus]
