

Waiting For

Unicorn

I am seated here
Closed in my tears
I look outside and imagine to see her

Free to fly without depending on no one
Free to wait for light and life will light up

I don't know! But I'm ready
I don't know! Meantime waiting

Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love

I want to love her eyes
I want to love her voice
Want to fall in love to the moment of my rise

Now I have no doubts, that girl will like me
Time is running out, but I haven't found her yet

I don't know! But I'm ready
I don't know! Meantime waiting

Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love

I don't know! I'm still ready
I don't know! Meantime I await.....

Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love
Waiting for the time for love
.....time for Love
