

She's In My Head

Union J

One step forward
Two steps back
I never know if I'm on track
And she does it just for fun, she does it just for fun
I wish that I was more relaxed
When she comes around, my heart attacks
And my words all hit the ground
My words all hit the ground

She told me her name was Stacy
I know that's not true
I'm not sure what she's tryna do

And I've been dreaming
Now for so long
I've been waiting
To call her my own
She's been hiding
From the feeling
I know she sees me
And it's starting to bring me
I know

She's in my head

I'm hoping that the world won't end
'Cause if I'm by her side, she'll see me then
Even if it's just for fun
Even if it's just for fun

'Cause I've wondering lately ways to bring her down
So I can be the one to bring her round

And I've been dreaming
Now for so long
I've been waiting
To call her my own
She's been hiding
From the feeling
I know she sees me
And it's starting to bring me
I know

She's in my head

Sometimes I feel she sees me way far in the crowd
Every time I turn, she's gone and I don't know how I'm never gonna get to say the things I need to say
To get her out of my head

And I've been dreaming
Now for so long
I've been waiting
To call her my own

She's been hiding
From the feeling

I know she sees me
I know she sees me
And I've been dreaming
Now for so long
I've been waiting
To call her my own
She's been hiding
From the feeling
I know she sees me
And it's starting to bring me
I know

She's in my head
