

Where Are You Now

Union J

Hey
I guess I wanted you to believe
That not really mattered to me
I told myself that if you were gone
I'd just carry on

But trying to move on only hurts
Its one step forward, and two in reverse
But since the moment I let you leave

All I see is you
When I wake up
You, when I talk
You, when I lie down
You, when I walk
You, when I'm sleeping
You, when I try to breath

(You just keep on haunting me)

I'll get over the way that you got over me
I know that I'll make it very virtually
Get my heart to erase somehow
And stop wondering where are you now

If I gave it all to someone else instead
Will you pack your bags and get out of my head?
Someday I won't even look around
I'll stop wondering where are you now

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

I never wear my heart on my sleeve
Love was always my enemy
Since the moment I let you leave

All I see is you
When I wake up
You, when I talk
You, when I lie down
You, when I walk
You, when I'm sleeping
You, when I try to breath

(You just keep on haunting me)

I'll get over the way that you got over me
I know that I'll make it very virtually
Get my heart to erase somehow
And stop wondering where are you now

If I gave it all to someone else instead
Will you pack your bags and get out of my head?
Someday I won't even look around
I'll stop wondering where are you now

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Where are you now
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

All I see is you
When I wake up
You, when I talk
You, when I lie down
You, when I walk
You, when I'm sleeping
You, when I try to breath

(You just keep on hunting me)

I'll get over the way that you got over me
I know that I'll make it very virtually
Get my heart to erase somehow
And stop wondering where are you now

If I gave it all to someone else instead
Will you pack your bags and get out of my head?
Someday I won't even look around
I'll stop wondering where are you now

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Where are you now
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
