

Who Would've Thought

Union J

One day something is going to come up And I'll be more than ready singing above The energy's floating around so good luck to me Tick tock I'm clocking and I'm watching too much Oh it's there I feel it coming but I cant touch You should be, you should be, you should be with me

So I can hold you, feel you, make me breathe you Hold you, feel you, make me breathe you whoa-oh, whoa-oh, whoa-oh

who woulda thought it would be you
whoa-oh, whoa-oh, whoa-oh
who woulda thought it would be you, be you, be you, be you
who woulda thought it would be you, be you, be you, be you
who woulda thought it would be you

I'll say whatever happened to luck oh it's all who you know and who you can trust It seems, to me, it just seems to be A bit much, I hear them talking, what have you got you're so low, you drop it all, it's never enough You should be, still be, still be with me

So I can hold you, feel you, make me breathe you Hold you, feel you, make me breathe you

who woulda thought it would be you
whoa-oh, whoa-oh, whoa-oh
who woulda thought it would be you, be you, be you, be you
who woulda thought it would be you

who woulda thought it would be you
who woulda thought it would be you
who woulda thought it would be you

So I can hold you, feel you, make me breathe you Hold you, feel you, make me breathe you

who woulda thought it would be you, be you, be you, be you
who woulda thought it would be you
