

Star Rider

Unisonic

The sky is dark, it's nearing dawn
and all the senses are aware.
The drama mounts, the camera's on,
there is a tension in the air.
All system go, t minus nine and vapor soars across the sun.
He's lifting up to the divine,
the thunder shakes him like a gun.
All for one.

Star rider, star rider,
heeding the call.
Out in the heavens,
one and for all.

He's lifting up and looking out,
over the mountains down below.
(Raise your hands)
He's got to prove, beyond a doubt,
there is a space that we should know.
(It's such a grand illusion)
And then the light becomes the dark, mome is so very far away.
(Got to stake your claim)
The second stage left on the mark (Right on the mark)
and all that's left is just to pray.
(Gonna be what you wanna be)
Make the day!
(Following the truth following the)

Star rider, star rider,
heeding the call.
Out in the heavens,
one and for all.

It's all that I wanna be,
oo much that I can't believe.
It's magic!
It's all that I wanna be,
so much that I can't believe.

It's all that I wanna be,
so much that I can't believe.
Show me!
There's more than the eye can see,
far behind the sun.

Star rider, star rider,
heeding the call.
Out in the heavens,
one and for all.

Star rider, star rider,
heeding the call.
Out in the heavens,
you're one and for all.
