Battle scars and neon lights
She holds the flame
She owns the night
And she scars my soul

The road again Strobe light highs Paralyzed, anesthetized And she sold my soul

And I'm healing, healing
Healing from the blows
Yeah I'm healing, healing
Healing from the blows
Yeah I'm healing
Healing from the blows

Neon smiles, narcotic light The sulfur room The hundreds nights And she stole my soul

Cut of time, reckless bleed Sedated smiles Kick the need And she steals my soul

And I'm healing, healing
Healing from the blows
Yeah I'm healing, healing
Healing from the blows
Yeah I'm healing
Healing from the blows
Healing from the blows
Healing from the blows

And I'm healing, healing
Healing from the blows
Yeah I'm healing, healing
Healing from the blows
Yeah I'm healing
Healing from the blows
Healing from the blows
Healing from the blows
