The Runaway

UNKLE

Never mind he whispered in my ear Could have been anyone's mistake Let's just press rewind from here Call it quits for time's sake

Ring me twice then I'll know you need me Call me back right away Somebody told me you've been thieving You're losing sight of the light

Wanna know wanna know why you're breaking even Wanna know wanna know why you're breaking down

From now on you'll sleep with one eye open Keep your credit up hardly leave the house They'll find you anywhere you're hiding I see you won't get out

Back home
You're found out
You're found

Now you're back home You're found out Back home You're found
