

Disgrace

Unter Null

It's such a shame that you lose at your game
Your disgrace
Hidden hostility and nothing but lies
So destroy your life
Go back on your word

You're only fooling yourself

The excess of filth that escapes from your mouth
Is enough to deface
The sweetest embrace
You are vulgar and crude
No mercy or rue
Your empire and reign
Has fallen from grace

You live in the sewers of human debris
You're bound by your lies and you'll never be free
Learn to exist in your own world of guile
I'll watch you fall
As you watch me smile
