

The Clang Of Shields Pt. II

Until Rain

My theory in life was so earthbound and
Suddenly this abstract figure, in person appeared
I'm not of this world I can surely tell
That they know

Thus I cannot lie and I don't care anyway
The moments of sorrow within redemption
All this time in a parallel universe
I've got to find my way back
I guess nothing is forever in life
Will we disappear on the way back home?
