

Blessed

Up Dharma Down

Let's go out on a bus
And watch the world run dry
And tell everyone on board
That in dreams we could hide
No one gets off
Until the meter breaks down
As water cracks the glass
Our wishes are found

You have the eyes that can tear the sea
One by one all will fall for me