

Never

Up Dharma Down

Though I still dream about you every night
I used to dream about you every day
Couldn't see it I was out of sight
And now some bit of light has lit my way
I never thought that it could be this way
That I could look into somebody's eyes again
When all the words were more than said that day
And all the promises have broken on their own

I used to think that I was tough
When I had no strength
I forced the feeling, kept believing none of this was strange
I didn't think that I could bleed if I just played your game
But I won't call
I'm better from my fall
Things will never gonna be the same again
We'll never be the same again

Your friends keep telling me things I didn't need to know
But I'll admit it felt so good to be true
I never thought that I would need to hear
How you feel, I thought that we were clear
We've cried so many tears to Bring those years right back
Don't look back
Cause you won't see me crying like it used to hurt so bad
Cause right behind is time, we thought we had it all or so we thought we did

I used to think that I was tough
When I had no strength
I forced the feeling, kept believing none of this was strange
I didn't think that I could bleed if I just played your game
But I won't call
I'm better from my fall
Things will never gonna be the same again
We'll never be the same again

Though I know I'm not myself yet
I'll get there somehow
No I don't need your help
I've been alone this whole time

I used to think that I was tough
When I had no strength
I forced the feeling, kept believing none of this was strange
I didn't think that I could bleed if I just played your game
But I won't call
I'm better from my fall
Things will never gonna be the same again
We'll never be the same again
