

Final Declaration

Vader

Wars are waged and bring no end
No victor, no defeated
All fleshs burning, worlds in chaos
Stars dim by the dust
No more dawn, no more dusk
All left in total fear
Bleeding scars, hearts of stone
Compassion is gone
Forever

Violence feeds indifference
And slaughters all in sight
Cruel, endless butchery
That leaves none alive
Wounded
Crushed
Altars and gods
No more days, no more nights
No more hope, no more lives for all
Fire

Only ruins left around us (Around us)
While ashes smoulder and burn (And burn)
No mercy (No mercy)
No forgiveness (No forgiveness)
As the last gasp of hatred
Leaves only dead

Violence feeds indifference
And slaughters all around
Cruel, endless butchery
Old and young destroyed
No more days, no more nights
All left in total madness
Holy terror, martyrdom
The world we know is gone

Amen
