

Send Me Back to Hell

Vader

My eyes and ears
Still remember cries of agony and pain
My innocence has gone for ever
No dreams anymore,
Nightmares tear my brain

I escaped from hell
But my soul has burnt in fire
Does madness help to forget?
Such ocean of tears

The promised land
Sounded like a hope to me
Angels singing and smiling
Bringing back my dreams and calm

Bring it back to me!

The paradise's fallen
Human demons screeching around
Better go to the void back
To my mother war

Stop it now!
Can't stand that place anymore
Just send me back!
To the place, where I belong
Send me home
To the pits of fire
Cut the rope
Send me back to hell

...Or push me down

Send me back
Send me back to hell
Send me back
Send me...
Send me back to hell
