

Holiday

Valencia

So let me first start off by saying
How hard I've been working towards this goal
I'm set in stone behind my eyelids
From hours of callous dreaming

And second let me tell you
About this feeling I can't describe
'Cause as I try to get this all out
Know that I'm not better off at all
'Cause this town's never seemed so close

When I'm home for the week on a holiday
Look around everything has changed
Life's not the same since you've gone away
Since you've gone away

I've come to this conclusion
That I was foolish when I thought
That if I just put my trust in coming home
That I'd be better off

All that just got me thinking
About the feeling I can't describe
And as I try to get this all out
I realize that I'm not better off at all

When I'm home for the week on a holiday
Look around everything has changed
Life's not the same since you've gone away
'Cause you've gone away

When I'm home for the week on a holiday
Look around everything has changed
Life's not the same since you've gone away
Since you've gone away

We all need a reason to believe
We all need a reason
We all need a reason to believe
We all need a reason

Home for the week on a holiday
Look around, everything has changed
Life's not the same since you've gone away
Since you've gone away

The end of the day we always need
A reason to believe she said
Love can take you anywhere you want
