

Stop Searching

Valencia

Lately I've been keeping an eye on you.
Don't know what you've been going through.
I can tell it's no good for you.
All I know is I've got to go before things get out of control, out of our hands, beyond repair.

Well, nothing is lost just because it's not where it used to be.
Just stop searching, you could spend you whole life.
I can tell by your eyes that hope is fading fast,
when all you have to do is stop searching.
I understand people change,
but don't miss out on this chance.
You have to find yourself,
and that's exactly where you'll find me.

Did I speak too soon about the elephant in the room?
I'd survive with or without you, but what would that prove?
Wait, there's more, more than enough for the jury, I'm sure.
So state you case and give me the floor.
We may lose what we love.
It's not far away because,

nothing is lost just because
it's not where it used to be.
Just stop searching, you could spend you whole life.
I can tell by your eyes that hope is fading fast,
when all you have to do is stop searching.
I understand people change,
but don't miss out on this chance.
You have to find yourself,
and that's exactly where you'll find me.

Take what you need.
If you leave, then leave a little piece of me.

Just stop searching, you could spend you whole life.
I can tell by your eyes that hope is fading fast,
when all you have to do is stop searching.
I understand people change,
but don't miss out on this chance.
You have to find yourself,
and that's exactly where you'll find me.
Come find me. Stop searching.
