

Judgement Day

Van Halen

It's my life, get off my ass, get outta my face
Man, I don't see no problem
Kickin' back, ain't kickin' you, no, no
Anyway, if I make 'em, then I solve 'em

Oh, that's right, yeah, whew

Makin' plans 's a waste, ain't no future here
Got no face, got no religion

Oh tell me why should I care or even, why should I try?
I just slide, slide on by, never bad enough to crucify me

Cry! Put it out until Judgement Day
I'll bear the cross on Judgement Day

I do most anything, keep 'em doing anything, 'cos
Sometimes I just wanna do nothin'
Nothin' lost, tell me, how can I lose
When I'm startin' off with nothin'

Oh tell me why should I care or even, why try?
I just slide, slide on by, never bad enough to crucify me

Oh! Put it out until Judgement Day
I'll bear that same old cross on Judgement Day
Oh! Hey!

Hey man, anything's alright. Yeah!

Wow! Put it out until Judgement Day
I'll bear the cross on Judgement Day
Put it out, put it out until Judgement Day
I'll bear the cross on Judgement Day

Oh! Whoa, yeah, on Judgement Day
Oh! Whoa, yeah, on Judgement Day
Wow!
