Once embraced, can't ever be let go
Once revealed, can't ever be not shown
Once believed, can't ever lose faith
Once shared, can't ever be separate
Once sown, once can't ever be not reaped

Like the dawn of a brand new day With the power of deity Well, I can feel it inside of me Feel it. Can you feel it?

Once born, can't ever be not conceived Once present, can't ever be past Once first, once can't ever be not everlast

Returning home of the prodigal Holding the intangible To believe in a miracle Believe it. Can you believe it?

Have you ever been touched? Once whoa, really touched? Could it ever be too much? Whoa-oh-oh, can you tell me?

Once seen, can't ever lose sight Once dawn, can't ever be not light Once, once felt, once felt Can't ever be untouched

The assurance only hope can bring With the conviction of the unseen See it's greater than everything See it, oh can you see it?

Have you ever been touched?
Once whoa-oh really, really touched?
Could it ever be too much?
Whoa-ooh-oh oh, can you tell me?
Have you ever really touched love once?

(Oh!)

Oh! Have you ever been touched?
Once whoa-oh-oh really touched?
Could it ever be too much?
I don't know. Did you tell me?
Have you ever really touched
Once. Whoa-oh really, really touched?

Could it ever be too much? Oh-ooh somebody tell me Have you ever really touched Love once?

Ah, have you ever really touched Love once?

Have you ever really touched love
Touched love?
Woooo-oooo
Woooo-oooo
Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah
Wooo-oooo
Wooo-oooo
Oh, love once. Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
