I journeyed to the North To hear what the preacher said He said, "your arms are too short to box with God, Learn these words instead", Gold tooth reflected, "My advice is free There's a trick to Christian values and its compulsory." Stay Frosty That's what the preacher man said Stay Frosty His words still racket in my head Can't control your future Can't control your friends In a world without end... Stay Frosty Stay Frosty now, alright Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh-uh! I travelled to the South The ancient Rabbi appeared to me Voice heavy with the sands of time, he made me see "Same as Kabalah Dave but for you it's free God guides us on our journey But careful with those feet" Stay frosty In a world without end Stay Frosty Like the ancient immortals said Don't want 'em to get your goat Don't show 'em where it's hid But that's just what I did Stay Frosty! Look out Stay Frosty! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh! Uh-uh-uh-uh! I journeyed to the East And I struggled to stay afloat A solitary Buddhist Monk threw me a rope Looked me in the eye  $\,$ And said, "Don't make me say this twice You want to be a monk, you got to cook a lot of rice" Stay Frosty In a world without end Stay Frosty Work hard at this my friends Look beyond the Kung Fu fighting God is love But get it in writing Stay Frosty

Stay Frosty now

I wandered out West
To the California Coast
Where the folks who know about frostiness stay frostiest the most
My brand new landlord proposed me a toast,
"My West Coast host"

Stay Frosty
Chant it like a Mantra
Stay Frosty
And there's nothing you can't handle
Far and wide far as you ramble
Trust in Allah
But tie up your camel, and remember...
Stay Frosty!
