

The Trouble with Never

Van Halen

You often wonder
You wanna know
How deep does
The rabbit hole go?

I know you never thought about it
But ask yourself later:
When you turn on your stereo
Does it return the favor?

I gotta know

That's the trouble with never
Sure seems like a mighty long time
That's the trouble with never
When was the last time you did something for the first time?

Hello

Every Einstein's assigned
A Tweedle Dumb and Tweedle Dumber
Any old fool could see
Never even wonder

Yeah, we could come together
I will call for you
Hey, never's good for me
How's never sound to you?

1-800-Tell-Me-Baby

That's the trouble with never
Sure may be a mighty long time
That's the trouble with never
When was the last time you did something for the first time?

Yeah
Level with me baby
Talk to me

This could damage your reputation
My wicked, wicked ways
But maybe I just will
Since you put it that way

Delusions of eloquence?
You never can say
You wanna play the game?
You can't quit when you get played

"Mistakes make people."
Isn't that what people say?
Let's un-plan the moment
Dance the night away

Selective amnesia
Is only a heartbeat away

A simple question concerning time:

"Suppose you wait forever

And then you change your mind?"

Oh, no

That's the trouble with never

Sure could be a mighty long time

That's the trouble with never

When was the last time you did something for the first time?

When was it?

When was it?

Ah, text me baby

When baby?

Tell me

When was the last time baby?
