Blue Tattoo

Vanilla Ninja

Once upon a lifetime The spirits of the dark Came to kill the beauty Of our world

Every soul was spell bound And prisoned into ice Just shining through Sad as a blue tattoo

Tears have turned to ice
As a sacrifice
Broken voices rise
From the age of the ice
To the raging skies
And they exorcise
'Cos on judgement day
We must hide - we must fight - we must pray - hey
It's a blue tattoo

But the monks of mercy
They prayed for every soul
'Til the sword of fire
Took control
In a crash of thunder
The ice broke into two
And shining through
There was the blue tattoo

Tears have turned to ice
As a sacrifice
Broken voices rise
From the age of the ice
To the raging skies
And they exorcise
'Cos on judgement day
We must hide - we must fight - we must pray - hey
It's a blue tattoo

We must hide - we must fight - we must pray - hey It's a blue tattoo

Tears have turned to ice
As a sacrifice
Broken voices rise
From the age of the ice
To the raging skies
And they exorcise
'Cos on judgement day
We must hide - we must fight - we must pray - hey
It's a blue tattoo

We must hide - we must fight - we must pray - hey It's a blue tattoo

It's a blue tattoo

You know
Down low
There's a light - it's a true - blue tattoo
Just go
Down low
Gotta hide now - gotta fight now Gotta save your soul and pray
Gotta break the ice away
Gotta find the true blue tattoo
