

Recreate the Impossible

Vanishing Point

In the ocean of hate you find
A brand new saviour
Someone you believe, someone free to lead?

Cry your tears of joy, in your sea of hate
You think the lies will change the whole world over
Silenced to die as your truth decays
Enslaved to a new machine

I have been cornered in my mind
In uncertainty
Am I the stain upon your mind?
Who do I believe?
I can't stand this state of lies - that's upon another life
It's within your narrow mind
Recreate the impossible
Impossible

As above so there is below
We create a world and destroy it all
Find me another universe
Are we denied to see
The dream is over
This dream is over

I have been cornered in my mind
In uncertainty
Am I the stain upon your mind?
Who do I believe?
I can't stand this state of lies - that's upon another life
It's within your narrow mind
Recreate the impossible

In my dreams
Do you see, you deny to see?
All I see is blue
I dare to feel what you cannot feel

I have been cornered in my mind
In uncertainty
Am I the stain upon your mind?
Who do I believe?
I can't stand this state of lies - that's upon another life
It's within your narrow mind
Recreate the impossible

Impossible
Recreate it
Impossible
