

Deep Beneath An Ancient Dominion

Varathron

The golden cities once ? Desperately loved to rose
From fathomless grey mass - Blue lakes and abyssic mountains

Fear, for something that will gonna be
Fear, for something that will never (gonna happen)
Mercy and mighty echoes lamentation and tearing
From a voiceless face (without ending)

The shining towers of Hy-Brasyl ? Earthy and heavenly paradise
Where men walked with gods ? And with beasts of the forest

Time when springtime and harvest
Were as one; flowers and fruits ? Hung heavily on every bough
Like a dream beyond the dimensions
The wind was blowing like a lover's touch
Caressing the highest towers
The mist like a sinful soul ? Was searching its salvation

The time when hands moved
Only in grace and giving, the eyes smiled
The lips spoke with love without shame

Spirits travelling on a labyrinth
Without fear but passion ? Bravery without bloodshed

Pictures from the past ? Unspoken dreams of today
Mysterious visions for the future
It's time you will learn from yourself
