

Rigth In Front Of You

Vaughan Penn

All your life has been
Lived for somebody else and not yourself
Days are narrowin'
But choices bring you new freedom to claim your wealth
It's not about what you don't have It's about realizing all you've got

And hey hey hey
Can't you see it standing here right in front of you
Hey hey hey
Accept that it's already here and it will come to you
Hey hey hey
Can't you see it standing here right in front of you
It's right in front of you
Your armor's wearin' out
And you've got no protection from your sword
What's it all about
Why is your fear of rejection something you ignore
Well if happiness is making you sad you might miss out on all y ou could have

Some warmth can melt away old walls that leave decay
You'll free yourself someday

It's right in front of you
Yeah it's right
Well it's right in front of you
You better accept it
It's in front of you
You gotta accept it
