

Pop Loser

Velocity Girl

Last night I walked into an empty state
Wanted to kiss you but you moved away
Guess I've given in to my own sweet tooth
I'd like to spend the day on the roof
I wrote a song in my car last night
Almost finished but I saw the light
I'll play along
I'll shoot for you anytime
La la la la
All along I guess I had the same thought
Wanted to show you all the records I bought
Waited at the bus stop
I stared in disgust
But then I realised
You were on the same bus
Finished my song
On the subway last night
Missed my stop
But I got it just right
Just give me time to
To get my head screwed on straight
Take a while
But you don't have to wait
