Into the Fire

Sleepless nights drenched in sweat A lust for life, endless death We're dancing in the fire, we're lost in the flame We're lost in the fire, nothing stays the same Into the fire Into the fire Day to night, night to day Lost in dreams that fade away Into the fire, we're dancing in the flame We're lost in the fire, well nothing stays the same Into the fire Into the fire In the night, alone and dark Deep within the source, Tortured feel the flames of Hell Rising to the cause One, two, three, four All my life, drenched in pain All my needs, all the same We're dancing in the fire, we're lost in the flame Dancing in the fire, well nothing stays the same Into the fire Into the fire Into the fire Into the fire
