If I could recall what it feels like missing you
I'd dig you up, and you hold you down
Like bones, cemented in sediment
I'd shut my eyes to find the sentiment
Like bones, cemented in sediment
I'd shut my eyes to find the sentiment

Cause I'm so gone
I don't feel like anything
Without living in someone's arms
I hold on tightly to everything, that I've lost
Cause I don't feel like anything
Without living in someone's arms
But I don't hold on tightly, hold on tightly to what we

(2x)
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
Lost, lost

If I could recall what it feels like missing you
I'd dig you up, and you hold you down
Cause we're like bones
And we fall and we break and we take too much time to hold
You'll get buried the deep you go

Cause I'm so gone
I don't feel like anything
Without living in someone's arms
I hold on tightly to everything, that I've lost
Cause I don't feel like anything
Without living in someone's arms
But I don't hold on tightly, hold on tightly to what we

(2x)
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
Lost, lost

We're like bones, cemented in sediment
I'd shut my eyes to find the sentiment
Like bones, cemented in sediment
I'd shut my eyes to find the sentiment
Lost, lost

(2x)
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
Lost, lost
