

What a Price I've Paid

Vern Gosdin

My friends try to tell me
To just let you go
But girl that ain't easy
You're still raising hell with my soul

They say that love is blind
I guess they're right this time
I nearly lost my mind
When I lost you

And I was so afraid
I'd never find my way
But what a price I've paid
To love you

You're one in a million
So hard to forget
And if time does the healing
It ain't done a thing for me yet

They say that love is blind
I guess they're right this time
I nearly lost my mind
When I lost you

And I was so afraid
I'd never find my way
But what a price I've paid
To love you
