

Nobody Cares

Verona

They don't know what they are fighting for Smiles have turned to tears
Endless lines of people searching for Truth that lies beneath

They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares

They don't know what they are crying for
Faces fade to gray
Lifeless crowds of bodies searching for
Souls that flew away

They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares

They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
They don't know why nobody cares
