I REFUSE To believe in blind traditions or buy into this fake world I will not ignore the truth I won't follow the sheep and be fooled I refuse to forget all that I've learned I see the truth that most choose to fight Because that is not what I have in mind as a perfect life I REFUSE To believe in blind traditions or buy into this fake world I will not ignore the truth I won't follow the sheep and be fooled I refuse to forget all that I've learned I see the truth that most choose to fight Because that is not what I have in mind as a perfect life I REFUSE when this world tries to poison me I REFUSE ...I REFUSE... when this world tries to poison me I REFUSE to forget all that I've learned In a world force feeding so many lies All the confusion of CHOOSING SIDES

I have searched and found what is best for me And this world will never that that from me
