

We Are Not Your Friends

VETO

if I'm going to be swept away
it's going to mean changes around here
and if it means that you'll change too
I hope the changes are for the better

in a way I know all of the right words to say I know exactly how this will end called you the other day and they said you'd gone away to somewhere far from me and they said:

don't you call again, 'cause
we are not your friends
no, you should run away and if you must leave me behind won't you please, please, please just set me free

'cause you've got me by the horns you know all the right things to say
